

aLMOST 3 WEEKS

Posted by poshut yid - 23 Dec 2008 18:05

B"H today will be day 20. I will be out of the office for a few days with family and no access so hopefully that will catapult into next week. However, when I get back next week I know I will have a huge battle as I will be the only one in the office and things get a little slower at this time of year. I will need all the help I can get.

P.Y.
