Yosef Hatzaddik was one of the mightiest warriors to ever live. He won one of the most difficult battles of desire in history. This was no one-time event with a crazy woman coming after him, like they taught us in third grade. His victory was so astounding that Yosef is one of only two people to be called a tzaddik by the Torah.

We can deduce Yosef's technique from the Gemara (Sotah 43a). The Gemara calls Yosef "the one who belittled ('Pitpet') his yetzer hara." Rashi explains that 'Pitpet' means Yosef ridiculed his yetzer hara and conquered it, not considering it (its claims) to be anything of significance. Rabbi Henach Leibowitz, zt"l, (Chiddushei Lev Bereishis pages 225-226) explains that Rashi is telling us that Yosef did not primarily battle the yetzer hara with willpower, by straining and forcing himself not to sin. Rather, he belittled and disproved the arguments of the yetzer hara.

This limited his desires and prevented his urges from growing stronger. The yetzer hara sparks feelings of desire. He tells us we want something and really need it. But all his claims are lies. The yetzer hara tries to make us think we can't be happy without his wares, and he tells us that if we get it, our lives will be amazing. He peddles cheap pleasure and empty thrills as the greatest experience based on the faulty logic that it must be incredible if we want it so badly. But as we know, the strength of the desire does not correlate with the pleasure or its lasting effects.

This is what Yosef thought about to prevent his desires from increasing. Whenever the yetzer hara tried to convince him that sinning would be so amazing, he thwarted the yetzer hara by thinking about how physical pleasure is overrated. He observed the yetzer hara's lies and dwelled on the falsehood. He proved the yetzer hara wrong and stopped his desires from increasing. That's how he defeated the yetzer hara in such a lengthy, overwhelming challenge.

Not gonna lie, it's getting a bit difficult after sitting through a day of Yeshiva... on the computer.

To strengthen myself a bit I've been writing what was and is really a cornerstone of any major streak I had, the taphsic method. With a bit more knowledge now Ive adapted it to my understanding and deal with the situation I'm in a bit better.

Ani Nishba (I swear), Beshaim Ad— (in the name of G-d) that until {NEW DATE}

If I have A FALL, which is defined by one of the following things:

Either:

1. I intentionally masturbate and finish while fully awake
2. I intentionally obtain in any way adult sexual material of any sort, digital or printed (including magazines, DVDs, internet) and use it to arouse myself
3. I intentionally go to any websites or web pages, pictures, videos, chats or forums, for the purpose of viewing adult sexual content.

This includes any type of adult oriented images, drawings, Gifs, or even simply a picture of an adult film star

THEN IF I PREFORMED

OPTION1: I go outside for a 10 minute walk or run within the 60 minutes proceeding A FALL and have only 1 session.

*Then within the next 36 hours I will rip up a $1 bill

OR

OPTION 2: I go outside for a 10 minute walk or run within the 60 minutes proceeding A FALL but still have more than 1 session.

*Then within the next 36 hours I will rip up $7 worth of bills

OR

OPTION 3: I have A FALL without going outside for a 10 minute walk or run within the 60 minutes proceeding it (and have any amount of sessions)

*Then within the next 36 hours I will rip up a $20 bill

Some Disclaimers and Clarifications ... (Say immediately after (Toch Kidai Dibur)

If I ripped up a $7 worth of bills more than 3 times, this Shvuah should no longer be binding on me

If I ripped up a $20 bill even once, the Shvuah should no longer be binding on me

If I had A FALL without remembering that I made this Shvuah, I will only rip up a $1 bill

If I am honestly not sure that I had a fall, I will not have any KNAS.

If I do renew the Shvua for a later date before this one ends, I will be able to adjust the knasos and conditions of the Shvuah (Such adjustments will be with the intent to suit my situation better, according to my understanding).

If I do not renew this Shvuah for a later date before this one ends, I will keep the very same conditions of this Shvuah until I renew it for another time period

If I had not renewed the Shvua before this one has ended, I will keep this Shvua until the next Rosh Chodesh, upon which I will have the option to renew the Shuvah for a later date (minimum of 2 weeks)

Rabbi _____ can stop this cycle no matter what, once Knasot, no matter what.

If you have ANY NOTES, please let me more before I go for it.

Go for it!

But before you do, I just want to point out one little problem. Ripping up money is a federal crime. Maybe you should just give it to tzedaka instead?

Thanks, but Hashem has blessed me with a love of Tzedaka, it wouldn't be much of a knas if its something that is meaningful to me, and sometimes even enjoy.

Any other ideas/suggestions?

You can give the money to an anti-charity, like the manchester united fan club, or ISIS, unless

But if not, then like I always say, LET IT RIP!!

Also, for anyone else who is still here, this is a link to my old 90 day journey from a couple years ago. It's pretty long, and A LOT has happened since then, and it's been a while (since I actually really committed) so I started a new chat/forum since. Maybe soon Ill update my story over here. <https://guardyoureyes.com/forum/19-Introduce-Yourself/312249-I-Need-To-Stop>.

Eventually Ill port the old one with he update, for now, here you go.

GOING ON DAY 10!! and it feels great. Was a bit difficult last light, but I took some extra precautions and came out a champion.

Just signed up to have a sponsor/mentor... thinking I can use some extra help with this stuff from someone who's "been there done that".

As of now I am officially starting the Fortify program today BEZH, gonna proofread taphsic a couple more times and go ahead with that, and also continue writing on the Forum (of course).

Keeping strong and moving on. Have a great day everyone.

Hey Yosef10!

Keep up the great work! I know it can be hard having to be on zoom all day for yeshiva, but Hashem is testing us all in that area right now and Hashem does not give us tests we can't

I even did it once, lol. Someone told me off for it and I realized he was right. Hashem gave us mitzvos so we can be productive, not destructive. If in order to do a mitzva we have to be destructive than you have to really think hard about what is going on.
