OivedElokim-I'll never give up

_____

Day one.

This is my brand new thread for my brand new journey towards purity.

I will keep with me the lessons learned so far and keep my eye on the ball.

Today is the first day of the rest of my life.

A porn and masturbation free life.

A life of positivity and happiness.

A life of Torah and Avodah.

The life G-d intends for me to live.

Wish me luck.

I don't know where to find the famous R' Tzaddok on this possuk, but the point is that a Tzaddik is defined by his persistence in getting up again.

Warning: Spoiler!

(Tzidkas HaTzaddik, 49): If one particular issue keeps getting in the way, forming an obstinate roadblock, don't go into reverse. Look again at the signpost. It does not read, 'dead end'. It says, 'Here lies your maximum potential for excellence.' So please drive this way. You have just chanced upon your particular field of endeavor. It is the very purpose for which you were created."

Ahh, such a Yesod Gadol in Avodas HaShem. To "Never give up."

My Rebbi in Yeshiva who I'm close to, who is very much an older litivish and a shtikl intimidating type of guy (meaning, not someone to give "inspiration") told me that "the difference between guys that are matzliach and guys that aren't, is that those who are matzliach accept there chesronos and get back up."

Keep moving forward and keep shteiging buddy.

With much admiration,

YeshivaGuy

Day three:

Just updated my tracker. I'm on level 2!

I need to learn to celebrate every clean day. Cause it's value is infinite to Hashem.

Even if to me success means never falling again...

See Tanya chapter 25 regarding each and every Mitzva

?????? ?? ????? ??? ???? ????? ????.

Good night.

Looking forward to a great, clean day tomorrow.

ODAAT.

I fell last night, after all that...

So I rise to fight another day.

One day at a time.

I don’t have a concrete strategy to deal with intense urges. I need to write something down today. All ideas are welcome!
